

Our Lower School Community of Educators

Our educators are experts in their fields who guide, support, and challenge our students in the classroom and beyond. Classroom teachers provide a core educational experience for students that is enhanced by teachers in specific academic subject areas.

Specialists in learning and social-emotional development complete the team of educators who are committed to the well-being of students in body, mind, and spirit. This team of educators is purposefully constructed and dedicated to the support of your child.